

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

Alumni Excellence in Innovation Award

UNeMed, the technology transfer and commercialization leader for the University of Nebraska Medical Center, will present for the first time the "Excellence in Innovation Award" during this year's Innovation Awards ceremony to be held on October 6, 2016. The award will be presented to the University of Nebraska Medical Center alumnus who best personifies the innovative spirit and has made a significant innovative contribution to society. Self nominations will also be accepted, and all nominations are confidential. Deadline for submissions is Aug. 15, 2016. Submit completed nominations to UNeMed at unemed@unmc.edu.

(All nominations will be retained and considered for future awards, if not selected in 2016.)

A qualified nominee will:

- be a UNMC alumnus
- have invented or helped invent a new technology that has made a positive impact on society
- have developed or helped develop a new product/procedure that people use
